

BA-1863

KNOEBEL HOUSE - Before 1850 - 13224 Manor Road, Long Green vicinity. Vernacular style house six bays wide with tall sash windows presenting a wide expanse of glass. Bull-width front porch with scrole-sawn brackets on posts. It also served as Patterson's Tavern when the highway was Old York Road. Shown as the Willingham store on the 1850 map and as Mrs. C. Read's in the 1877 atlas. Gable roof, stone foundation, composition shingles.